VOL. V. NO. 228.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

NOSSES APART AT HARLEM.

There were two cracking close finishes at Harlem yesterday, and everything taken into consideration, the racing was far above the ordinary standard. The track was deep and heavy and winners were hard to pick, still, the big crowd seemed to thoroughly enjoy the sport.

Out of the fifth and sixth races is where the close finishes came and they were exceedingly close ones indeed. The fifth race was at five furlongs for two year-olds and through the stretch it narrowed down to a fight between Avnetoks and Sam Fullen. Conley rode the latter and Burns was on Avenstoke, and the way these two boys rode was a caution. There is not a bit of doubt but that Sam Fullen was the better of the two colts but Burns outrode Conley and got the verdict by a nose. It was about the eighth post when the pair hooked up and from there to the wire they bore in some but no direct fouling was done. Conley, however, after being outfinished took the last resort to get the race and made a strong claim of foul against Burns. The claim was not allowed and the ring had to pay off on Avenstoke. Where Conley made his greatest mistake and threw the race away was on the stretch bend. Here he foolishly tried to squeeze in between Gussie Fay and Avenstoke and was naturally cut off. He was then compelled to take the colt up and come to the inside. This was the cause of his losing much ground and incidentally the race.

Over Piner del Rio's win "Rome" Respass won a big bet. He played the filly well at 30 to 1, 10 to 1 and 4 to 1, and when she won he was the most delighted man on the track. The filly's win was a most sensational one, and those that watched her closely could not help being surprised. The filly broke sixth, but she is a slow beginner and got badly shut off on the first turn. There were sixteen starters in this race and going down the backstretch, Pinar del Rio was last but one. On the far turn, however, she started to move up and slowly but surely got to the front. Jones came to the extreme outside with her in the stretch and found a streak of good going, and taking advantage of it, barely got up in time to win by a nose from Moore and he was only a short head in front of Marzella. The latter had bad racing luck early, was none too well ridden and taking everything into consideration, she should have won. Marzella was entered for $200 and was claimed for $500 by J. H. Smith.

That Ida Ledford is an especially good filly in the mud was emphatically demonstrated yesterday. With only 76 pounds up she made such good race mares as Tulla Fonso and Alzaretta look cheap. The latter was a 6 to 5 favorite for the race, which was at seven furlongs, but she was never a dangerous contender and was beaten away off by Ida Ledford and Tulla Fonso. Ida Ledford took the lead on the far turn and won pulled to a walk by eight lengths. It was a really clever performance.

Form is the only safe line to go by in picking the winners, but when a horse like Rollins can be last one day, beaten off, and then win, "form" plays but little part in the case. Rollins started Tuesday in the last race and finished absolutely last beaten off. He came right back at one mile and a hundred yards yesterday and won handsomely after being backed from 5 to 1 down to 3 to 1.

"Bishop" Poole thought his colt Blue Lick was a cinch to win the fourth race and told all his friends so. The consequence was Blue Lick was backed from 3 to 1 down to 13 to 5. He got away third but went to the front early and won pulled to a walk from Lillian Reed.

After many trials Myrtle Gebaur at last got out of the maiden class. She was at 7 to 1 in the first event and won all the way, finishing a length and a half in front of Antonietta. Lady Algy, a recent arrival, with Burns up, was made favorite for this race for some unknown reason. She showed no speed and finished last but one.

THE TURF CONGRESS.

The annual meeting of the American Turf Congress came to an end yesterday after a two days session. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—W. F. Schulte, New Louisville Jockey Club.

Vice-President—James Howard, Washington Park Club.

Treasurer—O. L. Bradley, Kentucky Association.

Secretary—E. C. Hopper, Latonia Jockey Club.

The office of assistant secretary was created and Mr. John Dillon, Mr. Hopper's efficient assistant, was elected to fill the new position.

The Chicago Jockey Club of this city and the Western Turf Association of San Francisco were admitted as new members. The application of the Lakeside Jockey Club (Roby) for membership was rejected. The rules were amended in many particulars. All of the amendments will be published in full in DAILY RACING FORM later on. Among the changes rule 18 was amended to read as follows:

"Every person or horse expelled or ruled off by any reputable running association, or by the American or National Trotting association shall stand ruled off the courses of the members of this Congress during the continuance of such expulsion. Any association that shall knowingly allow any ruled off person or horse to participate in its racing shall be outlawed."

Another rule adopted was that no person against whom there are arrears shall be granted a license as a trainer or jockey.

A rule was also adopted that hereafter no employer shall be paid the money won by any jockey bound to him by contract who shall win when riding outside mounts. It will be paid directly to the jockey.

A permanent office of the Congress will be opened in Covington, and the next meeting of the Congress will be held in Louisville.

The motion of Mr. Corrigan for the appointment of a committee to arrange dates for all tracks of the Turf Congress, was laid on the table and each club will be permitted to fix its own dates as heretofore.

On the proposition to make a Turf Congress Stake on each track the following plan was adopted: Half of the sum given by the Turf Congress to each track is to be divided between the trainers and jockeys of the first three horses in the proportion of 70 per cent. to the trainers and 30 per cent. to the jockeys.

FORT ERIE FORM.

Milton Young, the master of the McGrathiana Stud, is increasing his landed possessions with the intention of enlarging his thoroughbred breeding establishment. He has purchased 449 acres of blue grass land on the Tates Creek road from the Featherstone estate for $23,650.

Mr. J. B. Higgins has made another addition to his Elmendorf Farm, purchasing the 275 acres a joining, known as the Harris grant. This gives Elmendorf a total acreage of about 1,400 acres, making it the largest body of blue grass land owned by one breeder in the state.

It is reported from London that the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, has been a partner in Lord William Beresford's racing stable since the retirement of Mr. P. Lorillard.

Winner—B. f. by Barnes—Robena.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won whipped out; second and third were driving. Myrtle Gebaur was the best in the going and beat a poor lot gamely. She was under punishment from the three-eighths post home. Antonietta had no excuses. She got a flying start and always had clear sailing. Kitty G got into a bad jam at the start and was obliged to pull up and go around. Considering this she ran a good race. Scarlet Lily was slow to get going but finished very strongly. Lady Algy was a false alarm.

Myrtle Gebaur, place, 2½ to 1; show, evens. Antonietta, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Kittie G., show, evens. Lady Algy, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Fresno—Rosette.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third also driving. Rollins came to life with a sudden start and ran a good, game race. His improvement was a very sharp one and caused considerable comment. Long Dandy showed a lot of speed but stopped under pressure. Cuirassier had bad racing luck and was obliged to be taken back on the far turn. This ruined whatever chance he had of winning. Defiance looked dangerous all the way, but at the head of the stretch quit. Elidad seems to be of no present account.

Over weights—Blenheim, 3 pounds. Rollins, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Long Dandy, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Cuirassier, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Elidad, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Top Gallant—Miss Courtney.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won eased up; second the same. The other two were driving hard. Ida Ledford revealed in the going and had speed to give a way. This is a good filly. Tulla Fonso did her best. A hard track suits her best. Algareta was badly ridden. Vitotie tired her out in the first half and she naturally weakened at the end. Dolore ran a good race. Mark her for early action in lower company.

Scratched—14331 Harry Thoburn, 102; 14574 Talane, 99.

Ida Ledford, place, 3 to 5. Tulla Fonso, place, 2 to 5. Algareta, place, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. by Daniel—Blue Belle.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won eased up. It was a drive for the place. Blue Lick was never extended. He revealed in the going and played with his field. Lillian Reed ran her usual honest race. Uhler's race a streak of good going through the stretch and finished very strongly. Goose Liver ran a good race. Annovan was next to the rail in the deep going all the way. Lady Osborne was troublesome for about a half mile. Teutons was overweighted. Bitter Root seems to be of no present account.

Overweight—Teutons, 3 pounds. Blue Lick, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Lillian Reed, place, 6 to 1; show, 2½ to 1. Uhler, show, 6 to 5. Annovan, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c. by Bersan—Mary Anna.

Post 10 minutes. Start fair. The first two were hard at it. They hooked up at the head of the stretch and fought hard to the wire. Burns clearly outfinished Conley. The latter claimed that Burns bore in and interfered with Sam Fullen all through the stretch. There was no direct fouling done and the judges ignored the claim. Conley did get interfered with at the head of

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Alex. Covington who went to England last spring, is said to have nearly killed himself in an effort to reduce down to riding weight. Covington took Charina, Candelaria and Wax Toy, formerly Cavalry, to England and has won many races with the trio on the English tracks.
Charina is the mare he claimed away from Brewer Schorr last year, while Candelaria is the horse he claimed from Burns & Waterhouse.
Cavalry is the horse that Covington pulled off several successful coups with in this country last year.

The value of the Futurity this year was $41,240, distributed as follows: To the winner, $30,990, to the second horse, $4,333.33, to third horse, $2,166.67, to the breeder of the winner, $2,000, to the breeder of the second horse, $1,250,
to the breeder of the third horse, $500.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

AMERICAN RACING RULES OF 1899.

The 1899 edition of the American Racing Rules, published by Secretary E. C. Hopper of the American Turf Congress, is out and can be sent by mail to any address from this office for 25 cents. The book contains the racing rules as amended to January 1, racing Colors as registered and betting rules, and a digest in index form which is a guide to all the books' contents

Off at the second break to a good start. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third were also driving to the limit. Pinar del Rio came with a sensational rush from the threeeighths post home. Passing the half mile it did not seem that she had a chance. At that point she was last but one and seemed all right. Morea, after having bad racing luck, finished very strongly. Marzella was badly interfered with at the start and generally poorly handled. Cecil came away with a rush at the end. Weber did ever thing but fall off of Cecil. Inuendo did well as far as he went. Hermoso quit almost to a walk in the stretch.

Overweights—Our Friend, 2 pounds.

Corrected weights—Hermoso, 104.

Pinar del Rio, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Morea, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Marzella, show, 1 to 2. Hermoso, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f. by Lamplighter—Miss Olive.
Post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving. Olea was cleverly handled and ran a smart race. Belle of Orleans showed her usual speed but weakened in the last furlong. Kamara got away badly and handled her weight well. Lady Massey was outran all the way. Jamaica will do to watch in such going. Beverage wants a longer route. Belle of Lexington got a bad start and had but little chance with her inefficient jockey.
Scratched—14518 Prejudice, 114; 14585 Dangerous Maid, 109; 14581 Laureatea, 94.
Overweights—Belle of Orleans, 3 pounds; Lady Massey, 2; Beverage, 3; Marion Lynch, 1; Olinda, 2.
Olea, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Belle of Orleans, place, even; show, 2 to 5. Kamara, show, 8 to 5.

14662 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds. The Ocean View Handicap. $1,000 added.
